

CELEBRATE THE PUBLICATION OF THE WEIRD OF HALI – RED HOOK ...

IN RED HOOK!

A celebration of the August publication of the sixth and next to last book of the Lovecraftian fantasy series The Weird of Hali by John Michael Greer, published by Founders House Publishing, will be held on Sunday, August 18th from 2 to 5 PM at Sunny's Bar, 253 Conover Street, Brooklyn, NY 11231. That is in Red Hook, the location of the book's action.

The series is set in a world that at first glance appears to be our own. But the history of that world is not what we have been taught—and the tentacles reaching out for us from the shadows of a forbidden past may hold not only our only chance of escape from the terrifying forces closing around us, but the last hope for life on Earth

The author will read the first chapter of the final book in the series, The Weird of Hali—Arkham, and describe "Weird of Hali: The Roleplaying Game", to be published in 2020, among other fascinating things.

No cover charge.
